

FINALLY KILLED THE HOODOO

Omaha at Last Succeeds in Winning from Columbus a Game of Ball.

HARD HITTING AND SHARP FIELDING

Combination Which the Conquering Buckeyes Couldn't Get Over—Toledo, Minneapolis and Fort Wayne Also Winners—Other Games.

Omaha, 12; Columbus, 7. Toledo, 21; Kansas, 7. Fort Wayne, 8; Indianapolis, 1. Minneapolis, 8; Milwaukee, 1.

ELL, THE GREAT. Clausen has struck the banana peel at last, and struck it hard. After making the matchless record of fourteen straight, he met his first reverse at Sportsman's park yesterday afternoon.

It all broke his heart, and Gus Schmelz's whiskers curled up like so much excelsior. It was a red-hot summer day, and yet there was a large and enthusiastic crowd on hand to witness the alleged invincible Svede take a tumble to himself.

So jingle the bells and be merry, for it was the most signal victory Uncle has scored this year, being not only the first game Clausen has lost, but the first Omaha has won from the Buckeyes, as well.

So give her a cheer, it will do no harm. From the way Omaha broke the proceedings she looked like a sure winner. Won it from the Svede.

Shelbeck, who, for a change, was as lively as a cow's tail in fly time, waited with most commendable patience, and Frederick, the unconquered, let him walk down.

The crowd, as if possessing a prescience of what was to happen, set up a great shout at the Svede's first strike.

Gilks' well placed sacrifice boosted Sky to second. Then the Boston boy took another one. "Hey! hey! hey!" cheered the delighted spectators.

But when the agriculturalist fouled out to long-legged Breckenridge all jubilation subsided. Uncle was the next white sock up. He nerved himself, and before the people could make up their minds that it was so, he repped out a sharp single.

Shy ran in, Kelly down to third and the crowd yelled in ecstasy. It was a timely hit and merited the applause it got.

This hit of good playing seemed to unnerve the "Onion" and Walsh, in his vaunting ambition to throw Uncle out at first, knocked a panel out of the right field palisades, and the Bostonian scored and Uncle brought up at third.

Joe's old friends sympathized with him, but they all cried "Oh! oh!" Cololly waxed a little fly over Walsh's head and Uncle lumbered in with the third tally.

And the crowd was wild. Cololly miscarried in his attempt to nip second. The Giraffe threw him out.

Darby Was Uncertain. There was blood in Walsh's eye when he picked up his slab and stepped to the bat in the "Buckeyes' half."

He made his characteristic snatch at a high one, and the biochairs yayed him. But their yaws were quickly changed to cheers, for the next one Colonel Darby let go not full in the face.

It was a corking two-bagger. He stole second and came in on a wild pitch. O'Rourke, the combustible-headed Breckinridge, struck out, and so did the representative from Genoa. Big Lally got three balls, and the fourth was the wild pitch, which let Walsh in, and which also elicited a groan from the grand stand. McClellan hit safe and Lally went third, and Fredrick pitched on his base on balls, and a gray-back perched on every bag.

Here's where "the I told you so's" had their inning. But they took it all back when the Falls City youth struck out.

Colonel Darby was the recipient of an ovation for this clean hit. It was one, two, three for the Rustlers in the second. President Hayes lifted to McClellan, Colonel Darby to O'Rourke, and Vick died at first.

They Tied the Score. Then the Bucks tied the score. Jantz rattled out a two-sacker and Clausen a single, the giraffe loping in on the latter, and Fredrick pitched down at the end of the inning.

It was one, two, three for the Rustlers in the second. President Hayes lifted to McClellan, Colonel Darby to O'Rourke, and Vick died at first.
